At Good Shepherd we have Faith in People. This means seeing the whole person, not just the problem. Hearing the warmth in their voice, not just the despair. Recognizing that everyone is a mother, a father, a son or a daughter. Seeing the potential and promise where others don't. For those we serve at Good Shepherd, our Faith in People means all of this. Most of all, it means they discover their faith in themselves.

Good Shepherd Youth Services is committed to helping youth who may be struggling with poverty, family conflict, homelessness, mental health issues, abuse and neglect. We inspire youth to dream, hope and achieve. We strengthen community by believing that no youth stands alone.

Our services depend on the support of people who share our vision. There are lots of different ways to get involved – from volunteering your time and talent, donating food and clothing, to making a financial donation.

Angela's Place

Angela's Place

Angela's Place is home to young moms and their children. Mothers aged 21 and younger, who are confronted with enormous responsibilities as they raise their babies, live in one of 15 fully furnished, subsidized transitional housing apartments. Residents of Angela's Place receive on-site support and programming including life skills, goal setting and child development training designed to break barriers for multiple generations.

Jeanne Scott Parent & Child Resource Centre

At the Jeanne Scott Parent & Child Resource Centre, next door to Angela's Place, young mothers earn a higher education to break the cycle of poverty and better their chances of employment and independence. The Hamilton-Wentworth Catholic District School Board, in partnership with Good Shepherd, operates a school for the mothers, while on-site child minding is provided for their babies.

Our Goal

At Good Shepherd we have Faith in People. Young moms at Angela's Place and the Jeanne Scott Parent & Child Resource Centre learn to provide a better life for their family and discover faith in themselves. Supportive housing allows young moms to have safe and stable living environment, while benefiting from support services that improve long-term outcomes for both mother and child, such as job attainment and retention, academic success, improved parenting skills and healthy child development.
